UNOPPOSED MOTION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME TO FILE
COMMENT ON PETITION FOR DECLARATORY RULING FILED BY GROUPME INC./SKYPE COMMUNICATIONS S.A.R.L.

Pursuant to Section 1.46 of the Commission's rules, 47 C.F.R. § 1.46, Brian Glauser, through counsel and on behalf of a group of interested consumers, respectfully moves for an extension of time to file his Comment in the above-captioned proceeding. At bottom, additional time is required to allow Glauser and his attorneys to complete their factual and legal investigation, and to make his views known to the Commission in a carefully considered way to ensure an adequate record upon which the Commission can rule on GroupMe, Inc.'s and Skype Communications S.A.R.L.'s (collectively, "GroupMe") Petition for Expedited Declaratory Ruling and Clarification (the "Petition").

On July 24, 2012, the Commission issued a Public Notice seeking comments on the Petition, and established an August 30, 2012 deadline for the submission of comments. While Glauser and his attorneys have worked diligently to investigate the facts raised by the Petition and prepare a comprehensive Comment, the recent discovery of additional evidence by counsel—including expert testimony recently submitted in federal court contradicting many of the factual assertions raised in the Petition—necessitates additional time to provide a complete and accurate Comment on the Petition. In addition, counsel for Glauser with primary responsibility for preparing the Comment has been traveling during the week of August 27, 2012, and will remain out of the office until September 4, 2012.

For these reasons, and because the denial of this request would result in an incomplete record that would severely undermine the Commission's ability to rule on the Petition, Glauser requests a brief seven-day extension, up to and including September 6, 2012, to file his Comment with the Commission. The requested extension will not materially delay the Commission's resolution of the Petition, as the proposed date falls within the comment period and precedes the deadline for submission of Reply Comments of September 10, 2012.

On August 30, 2012, counsel for Glauser contacted GroupMe's counsel, Ronald W. Del Sesto, Jr., who indicated that GroupMe does not oppose the requested extension. Mr. Del Sesto, Jr. further indicated that GroupMe would require a reciprocal extension to submit Reply Comments, if necessary. Plaintiff does not oppose such an extension request from GroupMe.

Accordingly, Glauser respectfully requests an extension of time to file his Comment on the Petition until September 6, 2012.

Respectfully Submitted,

Brian Glauser.
